

MAR-Lang PROJECT
SHORT-TERM JOINT TRAINING AND PUBLIC EVENT
“FRENCH-ENGLISH MARITIME TERMINOLOGY ON SHIP AND CARGO HANDLING”
FRENCH MARITIME ACADEMY, LE HAVRE, FRANCE
18-22 SEPTEMBER 2023

AGENDA

Monday 18 September 2023

- 9.30 Welcoming of the participants, registration, short introduction by Christelle Nicolas, project manager.
- 10.00-11.00 First block of training - French: students and teachers; ship description.
- 11.00-12.30 Debrief on experience from students and teachers: discussion, exchanges on good practices.
- 12.30 Lunch at the Academy (teachers and students).
- 2.00 Tour of the Academy (teachers and students) followed by a guided tour of the city (English). Students can join for the city tour maybe done by the students (to be confirmed).
- 4.30 Back to hotel

Tuesday 19 September 2023

- 9.30 Welcoming of the participants, review from day 1.
- 10.00-11.00 Second block of training – English: students and teachers; ship description.
- 11.00-12.30 Debrief on experience from students and teachers: discussion, exchanges on good practices.

- 12.30 Lunch at the Academy (teachers and students).
- 2.00 Students feedback on their two-day experience and how this kind of training could facilitate their insertion on the labour market.
- 3.30 Back to hotel.

Wednesday 20 September 2023

- 9.30 Welcoming of participants, review from day 2.
- 10.00 Seminar (teachers) on experiences and good practices on teaching methods, content and new curricular approaches between teachers to test innovative teaching methods through innovative tools for teaching and assessment.
Intercultural immersive educational experience (students): students to attend a class (to be confirmed).
- 12.30 Lunch at “Hangar Zéro” (teachers)
Lunch at the Academy (students).
- 2.00 Visit of “Hangar Zéro” (teachers) – students activity to be confirmed with French students.
- 4.30 Back to Hotel.

Thursday 21 September 2023

- 9.30 Welcoming of participants, review from previous days.
- 10.00 Partners to do an extract of their curriculum – French or/and English: students and teachers.
- 11.30 Debrief and exchanges on how innovative teaching methods used in the courses will provide a solid ground for excellence in teaching and improve the teachers’ skills.
Get the students to talk about what they expect from an online course.
- 12.30 Lunch at the Academy (teachers and students).

- 2.45 Tour of Le Havre port (by boat) for teachers and students (duration: 1.30).
- 5.00 Back to hotel.
- 7.00 Get together dinner, students and teachers at Happy Dock.

Friday 22 September 2023

- 9.30 Welcoming of the participants.
- 10.00 Assessment – French.
- 10.30 Assessment – English.
- 11.00 Feedback/exchanges on assessment methods.
- 12.15 Lunch at the Academy (teachers and students).
- 1.30-4.30 Public event
- 1.30 Welcoming of the participants on site and online
- 1.45 Short reminder of what MAR-Lang is (Christelle Nicolas – ENSM)
- 1.50 Presentation 1: What progress have been made and what tasks have been achieved up to now (Christelle Nicolas – ENSM)
- 2.05 Presentation 2: Types of digital activities and interactive games for teaching/learning maritime English vocabulary (Corina Sandiuc, Camelia Alibec and Raluca Apostol-Mates – RNA)
- 2.20 Presentation 3: Assessment of language competency for maritime purposes (Edward Melaert – ENSM)
- 2.35 Presentation 4: Virtual campus platform (Andrei Bautu – RNA)
- 3.00 Presentation 5: La Navirothèque (Frédéric Dupont – ENSM)
- 3.15 Presentation 6 : Features of Marine Engineering Terminology teaching and learning (Vilma Pranckeviciute - LMA)
- 3.30 to 4.30 Questions from participants and exchanges